CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

DATED: 6TH OCTOBER,2006

P.C.:

Out of these matters only in one matter i.e. Arbitration Application No.105 of 2006 appearance is filed by advocate.

. I have heard the advocate and perused the arbitration clause. So far as Arbitration Application No.122 of 2006 is concerned, the Respondent Ramesh Chavan is appeared in person. He states that he will pay the dues claimed by the Petitioner within two weeks from today. It appears that the claims are very small. Therefore, in my opinion, it would be in the interest of justice to appoint a common arbitrator in relation to all these applications. Out of the two names suggested by the Petitioners, Shri G.M.Khambete, Retd.Addl.Chief Judge is appointed as common arbitrator in all these matters. It goes without saying that if Mr.Ramesh Chavan pays the dues as stated by him within a period of two weeks, then his matter will not be referred to arbitrator. Petition disposed of.
